

You may not hear from the public on this issue and that is because no one seems to inform the general public that such changes are about. The media certainly is not publicizing that we are moving toward a media monopoly and at the same time losing one of the most important freedoms we have in this "democracy"!!!!